AGGIE EXPLORERS SEMINAR

This 1-unit seminar will provide you with a fun, interactive introduction to the wide variety of majors offered in the College of Letters & Science. Specially designed for students who have not yet declared a major and those who would like to explore their options. This class will get you off to a great start by providing you with opportunities to get to know other first-year students and connect with important resources across campus. Students who wish to live in the Aggie Explorers Living-Learning Community must indicate this preference in their Student Housing Application by August 5th 2018.

What are students saying about Aggie Explorers?

"The most helpful part of this class was being given time and resources to reflect on my interests and learn about what is offered at UC Davis."

"This course is very helpful in discovering your possible interests and potential majors. It helps to narrow down the options."
